VOLUME L. NUMBER 2

FLAG DAY.

To-day the starry Banner be unfurled
To gladden patriot heart and eye Anew to voice the truth to all the world
That men are men and God's on high!

O, who can view untrilled the glorious sight
Of red and white and star-set blue, Breeze-tossed up there in heaven's golden light,
Nor pledge his soul to it anew!

Springs love or hate, this banner
Right upholds—
To freemen love, to despots hate;
No caste-bound slaves are sheltered in its folds,
Nor kings, nor law-created great!

Ungrateful is the heart and poor the soul
Which blest in thy protection lives,
Yet looks to where the lord's anoint-ed rule

And there a first allegiance gives.
Unfurl to-day the flag the Fathers'
blood
Hath crimsoned; let it float on high The emblem sweet of that for which they stood—

pleasure along life's pathway.

I feel it a great pleasure in having been well acquainted with these young people and find both good christian workers. The bride is an accomplished musician and a very sweet singer.
The bride-groom is one of the most conscientious christian young men I have had the happy pleasure of knowing.

visit for a few days, after which they
